

My Story

For this exercise, write your personal story of how you came to know Jesus, focusing on how it reflects the message of the Gospel. Use language that anyone could understand—imagine you're talking to a friend who may not be familiar with Christian terms. Start by describing your life before knowing Jesus, highlighting the struggles, questions, or longings that were part of your story. Then, share how you encountered Jesus and the changes that followed, expressing the difference His grace, forgiveness, and love have made. Remember, your story is a way to share the Gospel itself, so keep it honest and real, letting the hope and transformation in Jesus shine through.

Your testimony is a powerful tool that can reveal the love of God and the message of the Gospel through natural conversation. Use this exercise to refine the way you present this story and practice sharing it when opportunities arise.
