

Personal Growth Plan

When it comes to moving forward in our spiritual maturity, there are clear indicators that we are growing up in our faith. It is not just about achievement but consistent forward movement. Every believer is at a unique and individual place in their spiritual journey. A brand-new Christian will look different than a life-long and mature follower of Jesus. But, all of us can keep taking intentional steps forward in our walk with the Savior.

What spiritual marker(s) have you been encouraged to see are growing in your life?

The spiritual marker(s) I would like to see growth in:

Resources that interest me in this area(s):

One person who I will ask to keep me accountable through my journey in spiritual maturity:

One thing I am going to start doing differently this week for the area(s) I would like to grow in: